

Margaret A. Gannon Legal Education Stipend
Application - 2011

Purpose. Women Lawyers of Alameda County (WLAC) has established the Margaret A. Gannon Legal Education Stipend Fund to provide financial assistance to individuals preparing to take the California Bar Exam to help offset the costs of a bar review course or study materials.

Eligibility. Individuals eligible to receive a stipend must: (1) be a WLAC member OR enclose an application to join WLAC along with this application; (2) expect to be eligible for the California Bar in that he or she is currently enrolled in or has graduated from law school in the U.S.; (3) not currently be a member of any state bar; and (4) intend to pursue a career in the law.

Funding. A number of $500 stipends are available in 2011. Up to three stipends will be awarded at the annual member's reception on May 19, 2011, and at least one stipend will be awarded at the annual judges dinner in the fall. Recipients will be contacted prior to these events.

Requirements. Please complete the information below, and sign and date the certification statement. Please also include a completed membership form (attached) if you are not currently a member of WLAC. Submit this application with the latest version of your resume and a statement limited to one single-spaced page describing the following: (1) your financial need; (2) any community involvement or civic activities, particularly in law-related organizations such as WLAC; and (3) your professional goals.
