Re: The 2014 San Francisco La Raza Lawyers Association Public Interest Bar Review Scholarship

Please provide copies of the enclosed application and the following guidelines to interested students.

The SFLRLA Public Interest Bar Review Scholarship is designed to provide financial assistance to law graduates who intend to pursue a career working with Bay Area community-based legal service providers to enhance the delivery of legal services to the Latino community. The Bay Area Latino Lawyers Fund awards this scholarship annually to graduates intending to work in areas where there is a substantial Latino population in need of legal services. The scholarship committee will give priority to scholarship applicants whose post-graduation employment will meet at least one of the following objectives:

- a. Develop or expand legal services in the areas of housing, education, employment, discrimination, immigration and naturalization.
- b. Develop materials and training to educate the Latino community about its legal rights and to facilitate its access to the justice system and the courts.
- c. Provide training, referral, recruitment and mentoring to law students.

Creative projects consistent with these guidelines, although not specified above, will be considered.

AWARD

One scholarship will be awarded to finance a bar review course for a current third-year law student who has committed to working for a Bay Area organization serving the Latino community consistent with the scholarship criteria described above after the completion of the bar exam.
